

HOW TO USE THE CHARTER

Bring the Barnet Charter to life in your organisation or community.

This guide offers practical ways to embed the Charter's principles and show your commitment to tackling violence against women and girls.

For Organisations

- Share the Charter with staff via internal newsletters or team meetings.
- Display campaign posters in communal areas.
- Include the Charter in onboarding materials or HR policies.
- Encourage staff to attend Suzy Lamplugh bystander training.

For Individuals and Community Groups

- Share campaign materials on social media.
- Use the digital badge in your email signature once you've signed the Charter.
- Attend a training session and invite others to join.

Caring for people, our places and the planet